

TS LEADING RICHMOND SHOPS

In each advertisement on these pages there is a misspelled word. The persons who send in the neatest and most original correctly spelled list of these words will receive the following photographs as prizes, which has been especially arranged for by The Times-Dispatch:

First Prize.....6 Fostergraphs.

Second Prize.....4 Fostergraphs.

Third Prize.....2 Fostergraphs.

To the next seven..1 Fostergraph.

All answers must be in The Times-Dispatch office, addressed to Contest Editor not later than 6 o'clock, WEDNESDAY, MAY 31st.

—All Photos by Foster.

"I don't know when have spent such a pleasant and profitable time in any store, as at Cohen's

"Here I saw the snappiest, newest Summer Frocks, that are shown at the best fashion centers.

"The Sybil Models, with elongated waists and silver cloth panniers over the shoulders—Rose Windsor Dresses of the 1830 period, fashioned with reed skirts—Sport dresses for every outdoor occasion, of Jersey Silks, Crepe de Chines and Jersey.

"And there is a sying, 'an air' about these styles that distinguish them as the handiwork of the true fashion designers."—Catherine Proctor.

"I must say the Merchants National Bank has that warmth of welcome that makes a person feel it is the bank in which to open any sort of an account."—Catherine Proctor.

Merchants National Bank

11th and Main Streets

"Safest for Savings"

"The character of work done by Foster cannot be excelled anywhere.

Never, in all my travels, have I met with a more painstaking photographer. His studio is complete with every new and modern equipment known to photography. It can truthfully be said of Fostergraphs, 'Nothing Missing But the Voice.'—Catherine Proctor.

112 N. 9th St.

W. W. FOSTER

112 N. 9th St.

ite sure

"Having Gloves and Gowns Cleaned is One of an Actress' Troubles

"In Richmond I tried Spitzer, who employs the Zelon method of dry cleaning, and his work is most satisfactory. It is far superior to any I have ever seen before."—Catherine Proctor.

SPITZER--The Cleaner

114 North 8th St.

"To say that I am well pleased with the

Reinach & Schwartz Engraving and Stationery

does not do you justice.

Your work is perfection itself, and the promptness with which it is done certainly appeals to me."—Catherine Proctor.

1311 East Main St.

Reinach & Schwartz STATIONERS

Madison 5467

"I Find more real pleasure in my Victrola than words can express.

"It is a great deal of satisfaction to find a full line of Records in stock here. Now I know where to come. This instrument is certainly a beauty, and the assortment of styles and sizes is the most complete I have ever seen."

Victrolas from $10 to $400

erry Corp.,
ad Street.

"This Rountree Wardrobe Trunk

Is the most complete and convenient I have ever seen. It has a place for everything, and I know everything will be in place always."—Catherine Proctor

ROUNTREE'S

313 East Broad

"I was remarkably impressed with Sydnor & Hundley's wonderful store. Everything was so magnificent and splendid—their rich and complete stock of Furniture amazed me."—Catherine Proctor.

Sydnor & Hundley, Inc.